NEW SERIES.

SEDALIA, MISSOURI, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1892.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

DALTON HERE.

BIG DEMOCRATIC RALLY IN THE CITY TO-NIGHT.

Torchlight Procession to East Sedalia and Back and Speaking at Court House.

Hon. Dick Dalton, one of the most eloquent speakers in the state, and one of the truest democrats wing, is in the city and will speak at the court house tonight. There will be a torchlight procession to East Sedalia where Col. Dalton will speak a few minutes, and then the procession after having been joined by the democrats of East Sedalia, will march to the court house where the addresses of the evening will be delivered.

Hon. Mike Moran, of St. Joseph, and other distinguished orators will be present and also deliver addresses.

This is probably the last big rally of the campaign and it will be one of the most enthusiastic.

Democrats are requested to meet promptly at the market house square at 7 o'clock this evening and the procession will start from that place promptly at seven.

Every democrat in Sedalia should be present.

THE MURDER CASE.

No Further Developments of Importance—The Negro an Incurable Liar.

The murder case is taking a rest since Dick Robinson made his confession. The fact that he acknowledges the crime is deemed sufficient and the next session of the criminal court will decide the matter.

The negro's story of the crime is so rambling and palpably unreliable that people are anxious to know what the real outcome will be. Many do not hesitate to say that Robinson had an accomplice, while others think the murder resulted from jealousy.

Robinson is still in jail at California.

Will Get There.

J. R. Lowry is fast making a reputation for himself at 121 Ohio street. His restaurant serves the public with good meals and he has a short order counter in connection for lunches. He only asks a chance to show the citizens of Sedalia what he can do. Take your dinner with him.

To the Wilds.

A big hunting party has been organized to leave Monday for South Canadian, I. Ty., from which point the country will be penetrated to some desirable spot on the Canadian river. This is a sportsman's paradise; deer, wild turkeys, quail and prairie chickens can be found in abundance and the streams are filled with fine game fish. The party will remain two weeks and have provided everything that will add to the pleasure of the trip. The hunters are A. B. Dempsey, Wm. Campbell, Louis Monses, Mose Hogan and a number of gentlemen from Cooper county.

BURTIN A RUNAWAY.

A Lady Thrown from a Spring Wagon and Painfully Injured.

This morning while Mrs. Lane and her 12-year-old son, living near Beaman, were entering the city near the cemetery, the team took fright and ran away.

Mrs. Lane was thrown to the ground in front of the residence of John Haupley, and at first was thought to be badly injured. She was taken in Mr. Haupley's house and Dr. E. C. Evans summoned. An examination showed a painful bruise of the side and a number of scratches. Otherwise she was not injured and will recover.

Her son was driving at the time. One of the horses was young and quite spirited and, seeing a lot of four sacks in front of a grocery store, became unmanageable. The spring wagon was wrecked and the horses not caught until they had run far into the city. The boy was not hurt.

A New Company.

Articles of association were filed yesterday in the office of the county recorder for a company to be known as the Tebo Water, Light and Power company. There is a capital stock of $50,000, the shares being rated at $100 each, and taken as follows:

M. L. Andrews, 296; S. F. Rosse, 2, and D. E. Kennedy, 2.

The company is the owner of the immense reservoir which was constructed eight miles southeast of town last summer. It covers 150 acres and is built in a most substantial manner. It will be used as a reserve supply for the city. At some future time the company intends to improve the grounds and make it a pleasure resort.

Mr. Doble Talks.

A DEMOCRAT reporter asked Budd Doble yesterday if he thought that Nancy Hanks could have broken her record of 2:04 had the weather been warmer and the wind calm.

"I have no doubt of it," said the famous driver. "The speed shown at certain parts gave strong indications that the mare would have gone better than 2:04. Wind and weather are a most important thing in racing, but like time and tide—with a twinkle in his eye—"they wait for no man."

□ Come back next year, Mr. Doble, and Sedala will have the wind and weather made to order for you.

A Peculiar Accident.

A gentleman living on the north end of the "Katy" was in the city this morning en route to St. Louis where he was taking his son, a young man who was suffering from a most peculiar accident. In some way, he had carelessly gotten a cockle-bur in his throat and could not remove it. The bur became so firmly lodged that a very delicate surgical operation would be required to take it away. The young man was much emaciated and showed signs of great suffering.

Will Have to Wait.

"Biff" Worth, well-known on the streets of Sedala, was tried in the police court this morning for disturbing the peace and resisting an officer. D. E. Kennedy appeared for City Attorney Cashman. "Biff" was fined $5 for the first offense and $25 for the latter. He has a constitutional weakness to keep from working, but will now be given a chance to develop his muscle or pay the fine.

Fine Location.

When it comes to location and good meals, Lowry's restaurant at 211 Ohio street is strictly in it.

Farm for Sale or Rent.

This farm is located five miles southwest of Lamonte, and is one of the best grain and stock farms in Pettis county. Will sell all or a part on easy teams, or will rent for a term of years for cash; 275 acres in wheat, 70 acres in pasture, the remainder plow land in a high state of cultivation, plenty of good water etc. on the place, for further information call at the farm or address M. H. Garton, Lamonte, Mo.

Smoke the National Golden Rod, manufactured by the Sedalia Cigar Co. The only 10 cent cigar in the city.

THE RACES.

THE FAVORITES FAILED TO DISTINGUISH THEMSELVES.

Pleasant Weather Draws a Good Crowd—Dobie Drives His Team a Mile in 2:15.

Yesterday was pleasant weather and it had its effect in bringing out an increased attendance at the races.

Budd Doble drove his team, Alberita and Renia, an exhibition mile in 2:15 to a four-wheeled pneumatic sulky. His horse, Jack, with a record of 2:12, was also driven a mile but the time was not hung out, as he did not go against his time.

In the 2:17 trot for $500 there were seven starters and several of them unusually good ones. Senator Conklyn had things his own way, however, even though King Herod tried his rushing tactics.

There were four starters in the 2:24 pace. Jersey Girl dropped a shoe in scoring for the first heat. How was too swift for his competitors and walked all around them, winning easily in three straight heats.

THE SUMMARY.

224 class pace, three best in five to harness.

How, b.g., Robt. Lindsay, St. Louis, 1 1 1; Juliet, c.m., C. B. Hurstall's Sons, Chillicothe, Mo., 4 2 2; Rumba, b.g., H. L. Hayward, Medara, Ill., 3 3 3; Jersey Girl, d.m., Ashbrook Farm Co., 3 4 4; Time, 2:20 1/4, 2:18 1/4, 2:17 1/4.

The 2 year-old trot proved uninteresting as far as first money was concerned, as Oneita had a walk over.

The "short horses" gave the boys a shaking up yesterday and several are wondering what struck them. The favorites were not in it.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Regular Monthly Session Held at the Broadway School Building.

The regular monthly session of the city teachers' institute met at the Broadway school this morning. The roll call showed a good attendance.

Superintendent A. J. Smith made his usual introductory talk in which the work of the past month was approved or criticised and valuable suggestions made whereby better results could be obtained. Supt. Smith is a veritable mine of valuable hints and his talks are always looked forward to by the teachers. Misses Lillie and Beulah Harris performed a delightful piano duet and were followed by Mr. E. E. Clark with two vocal solos. Mr. Clark is making wonderful progress in his singing and his rendering of "Out on the Deep" was particularly pleasing.

The principal talk of the morning was by Rev. Alexander Allen of the Episcopal church on "Moral Training in the Public Schools; Is it Sufficient?" The reverend gentleman said that the Bible should be taken as the text-book of all moral education and should be used in connection with authorized prayers. He did not want to be thought critical, yet a uniformity of this kind would be a safeguard and prevent the charge of the schools being allowed too great freedom and negligence in their moral training.

Rev. Van Wagner Will Speak.

Rev. J. M. Van Wagner is to speak at the Congregational church next Sabbath evening to editors, city officials, lawyers, doctors, business men and "the rest of mankind," and we will all go to hear him.

A VALISE STOLEN.

A Thief Enters M. K. & T. Chair Car at the Depot—The Grip Found.

About 7:30 o'clock this morning F. Weeks was coming down town from his home on the north side and as he passed Clay & Heynen's marble works and was surprised to see a valuable red leather valise on the ground behind a large block of marble. The lock was broken and a quantity of papers mixed topsy-turvy in the grip. The valise was taken to the police station and held too await the owner.

At a later date, Depotmaster Mont Carnes received a telegram from M. P. Freigh, in the general claim office at Parsons, Kas., which asked if a valise filling the description of the one found had been seen by Mr. Carnes. Mr. Freigh was in a chair on passenger train No. 1, which went south last night, and did not miss the valise until after he had left Sedalia. The thief has not been apprehended. There was nothing but a quantity of M. K. and T. stationery in it.

There is to be a state meeting of the poultry breeders of Missouri in this city during the first week in December, at which time there will be an exhibit of poultry of the choicest breeds.

Colman's Rural World, a newspaper which is ever and always at work for the best interests of Missouri farmers and stock breeders, says of this meeting:

What shall it be? Just what the breeders and poultry raisers of Missouri will make it. The value of this exhibit will not be measured by the money won by the several exhibitors. On the other hand, the value of this gathering of poultrymen and women, will best be measured by the free exchange of opinion, as to different breeds for egg producing, weight of fowls for market, relative value of different breeds as early broilers, value of different methods of preventing diseases and vermin, roots, feed, incubators and brooders, methods of shipping, both of

THE CHARGE PROVEN.

As Sheriff Smith is said to be soliciting democrats to vote for him for collector, and the Gazette has claimed that democrats would so vote, it would be well for Mr. Mullins, committeeman of Miami township, to answer the following interrogatory: Did he, or did he not, say last spring, in the presence of a crowd: "I don't want a d—n democrat's vote," or words to that effect?—Evening Democrat.

He did not say anything of the kind, and he authorizes the Gazette to say that he will donate $500 to any charitable institution the DEMOCRAT may name if the charge can be proved by reputable witnesses.—Gazette.

The DEMOCRAT assumes that Sheriff Smith made the denial, as alleged by his organ, and that the offer on his part to pay $500 to some charity was made upon his authority and in good faith.

Hence the DEMOCRAT presents the following affidavits of reputable citizens in support of the charge:

SEDALIA, Mo., Oct. 26, 1892.
In a conversation with Ellis R. Smith on the day of the city election last spring (April) he (Smith) made use of the following language, "I don't want any d—n democrat's vote."

This language was used in the presence of a number of others. DAVID RODRICK.

We, the undersigned, certify that we were present and heard the above conversation, and that Mr. Smith used the language as given.

The evidence presented is conclusive. It is clear, plain and sworn to by reputable citizens of Sedalia.

The DEMOCRAT has taken some pains to get the information desired by its contemporary, and we find that the collector, the treasurer, the county clerk, the circuit clerk and the recorder, all democratic officials, make their reports regularly according to law. We understand that the sheriff, a republican, has so far failed to make a single report as required. Being a republican official, of course the Gazette can explain why the report is not made.

The DEMOCRAT is not disposed to brag or blow, but the substantial increase in its subscription and advertising business is most encouraging, and the exceptionally large street sales during the past week is testimony to the splendid work being done, especially by the reportorial force. Indeed, no small part of the credit for the success and popularity of the DEMOCRAT is due to the tireless and intelligent work of its editor and reporters.

The people of Sedalia should stand by the members of the fair association. It is a public enterprise gotten up and managed for the benefit of the town and county, and the men who have given so unsparingly of both time and money to make it a success deserve the thanks as well as the substantial encouragement of the public.

BUMMERS and frequenters of disreputable resorts cannot be elected to office in Pettis county this fall. This is pretty nearly official.—Gazette.

Does the above refer to any particular candidate on the republican county ticket, or is it just a general remark?

Not Expected to Live.

The man who "don't want any d—n democrat's vote" will never wear Mike Doherty's shoes or collect Pettis county's revenue.

Therefore, we earnestly appeal to the republican party of Saline county to reject this fusion, and at the polls to scratch every adventurer from this ticket. Mr. W. B. Mullins, committeeman of Miami township, reports that 250 republican votes will be cast against the fusion ticket at that precinct.

R. V. MONTAGUE and others.

These factional fights and wrangles have demoralized the party, and the effort to run a "Warner campaign" instead of a republican campaign could have had no other effect.

There is a splendid opportunity, however, and every inducement, for conservative republicans to cut loose from what has really ceased to be a republican party and join the democracy in standing up for the good name and prosperity of the state.

OUR sometimes enterprising, and always esteemed, morning contemporary was so busy proclaiming its own excellence as a newspaper and casting slurs at its contemporaries yesterday morning that it made a greater failure than usual in getting the news that happened during the previous evening at its own door. For instance: A valuable watch was stolen from a gentleman at the union depot at about 7:30 p. m., and an arrest of a negro suspected of the crime, was made. The Gazette the next morning didn't have a word of it. And again: The same night at 9:30 an attempt was made to rob a house at No. 1720 Ohio street, and the would-be burglar was shot at three times. The Gazette was so busy praising itself the next morning that it did not have time to give that piece of news either. But our morning contemporary is a good newspaper, only it is not near so excellent as it supposes itself to be. Editor Streit should put his "hired hands" to work.

Does the county court of Pettis county comply with the law by requiring the different county officers to make quarterly reports, showing the amount of fees collected, from what source, etc? Isn't this required by the revised statutes? We merely ask for information, you know.—Gazette.

Special Policeman J. R. Baldwin was approached this morning by A. R. Hunn, proprietor of the West Third street merry-go-round, and asked if a hardware store had been robbed recently, showing the officer two new pocket knives which he thought had been stolen.

Last night two white boys and a negro came to the merry-go-round and offered the knives for twelve rides. The proprietor gave them twelve tickets and kept the knives. The name of A. B. Dempsey was branded on the blades.

A visit to the police court resulted in finding the culprits demurely before the judge awaiting to answer the charge of vagrancy. This was dismissed and the boys turned over to Constable Ramsey who took them before Justice Blair.

Mr. Dempsey had not missed the knives and is unable to say how many more are missing.

"OTHER SIDE" AGAIN.

The Rejoinder of Vindex Briefly Reviewed.

To the Editor of the DEMOCRAT.

Yesterday's issue contained quite a lengthy article from our angelic friend, "Vindex," or lower d—x. I feel like apologizing to your readers for condescending to reply to one so very minute. Such profusion of silly gush as he submerges himself in, in attempting to explain himself out of his loathsome predicament, is, to say the least, amusing. Certainly some of the truths (which hurt) pierced him in another tender place.

He challenges me to disclose the whereabouts of the lawlessness referred to. It is not my disposition at this writing to indulge in remarks that will add more fuel to the flame which seems to scorch the angelic Vindex, or others who feel as if they would do better if given a chance. Discretion is worth more to the public good at this time than the greed for sensation peculiar to the little Vindex.

He very much fears that the interest manifested by the citizens' meeting will resolve itself into eternal silence ere Monday night rolls around. He is easily frightened and should arm himself against any such danger with his air gun or tin horn—A British bulldog might bite the silly thing.

He declares that he was armed around through the hotel lobby by a certain minister, and that all remarks regarding horses, races, kite tracks and mass meetings, fell upon his ears so gently that it reminded him of the soft sweet accents peculiar to angelic whisperings. I am indeed sorry for the minister who must be encumbered with one whose presence is possibly essential to produce a flow of sentimental or select language from all he meets, while picking up points, tips, &c.

Such angelic presence must have power To turn the sweetest swill milk sour; Too angelic with mortals on earth to abide, To the empire of tin horns pray dry up and slide,

Not his side, but the OTHER SIDE.

The Nimble Mice.

The DEMOCRAT publishes to-day for the pleasure of those who have already been inspired by his book, a contribution entitled "Nancy Hanks" from the bold and inexhaustable pen of Allen Dorman, a gentleman who perhaps has written more lines with similar sounding words at the end than any man in the state of Missouri. He has some peculiar ideas and once spoke in a Miltonic strain of hell as a place where "Icicles big as mill posts hung from the sheds erected there."

NANCY HANKS.

Among fine horses at their best: MERRY-GO-ROUND and LADY-SIDE—Sedalia's fair, where Nancy Hanks Reached two six and a half.

The crowd was large, the sights were grand;

Swift horses with flying feet.

In all her pride and strength and might,

The world its record beat.

And so it is with us, dear friends; The world that has done have done. A present for the eye to see.

With each and everyone.

The books we write, the lives we live.

The labors that we do.

Will make a record in this life.

If thus the heart is true.

SWEPT BY FIRE.

A Great Section of Milwaukee Destroyed.

STARTS IN AN OIL WAREHOUSE.

Hundreds of Dwellings Besides Stores Fall
a Prey—Casualties Reported—Freight Cars Burned—The Losses Estimated at $10,000,000.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 29.—Scores of blocks of Milwaukee's largest business firms, together with hundreds of frame houses, were destroyed by fire last night. Commencing in an establishment on East Water street, next to the river, the flames driven by the fearful hurricane that was blowing spread with frightful rapidity to the lake over half a mile to the east. It is utterly impossible to estimate the loss with any degree of accuracy. Even a complete list of the big business houses cannot be obtained, while to these must be added the small individual losses of hundreds of small property owners whose houses and household goods have been destroyed.

The tract burned is over half mile wide east and west and a mile north and south. Commencing in the establishment of the Union Oil Co. at 275 Water street, the fire was burning fiercely when the city department reached the scene. Owing to the hurricane that was blowing the men were utterly unable to do anything and for any practical results might as well have done nothing. In spite of this the men worked bravely and did all in their power, risking their lives in the burning buildings and endeavoring by tearing down blocks in advance of the path of the fire to check it. This was in vain, and all night long the flames continued along their way from the establishment on East Water street.

Where the blaze started the path of the fire was in the shape of an immense
V, the connecting point of the two bars
being in the oil establishment, with one line extending directly east to the lake, the other running to the lake in a southerly direction. Through immense
factories, from four to seven stories
high, which were supposed to be fireproof, the flames spread with as much ease as through the frame cottages, which they attacked further east. After wiping out the factories and wholesale
establishments the fire found easy prey
in the scores of blocks filled with frame houses, which extend east of Milwaukee street.

Where the blaze started the path of

V, the connecting point of the two bars
being in the oil establishment, with

lake, the other running to the lake in a southerly direction. Through immense
factories, from four to seven stories
high, which were supposed to be fire-
proof, the flames spread with as much

which they attacked further east. After
wiping out the factories and wholesale
establishments the fire found easy prey
in the scores of blocks filled with
frame houses, which extend east of Milwaukee street.

From here the flames leaped to the freight house of the Milwaukee, Lake Shore & Western. These caught in the extreme southern end and in a moment were ablaze along their whole length, over two blocks. Adjoining the depots were the freight yards of the same railroad, as well as of the Chicago & Northwestern. These yards were filled with hundreds of loaded cars, all of which were quickly consumed. As soon as it was seen that the yards were in the path of the holocaust a score of switch engines were set at work to endeavor to get the loaded cars out of the yards.
The men worked bravely and succeeded in removing some of the trains, but they could only take them farther south, the yards to the north being blocked.

This did no good, as the wind suddenly shifted from the northwest to almost direct north, and in a moment the cars had just escaped in one place were burned in another. It was in these yards that some of the most pitiful sights were seen. In one place half a dozen poultry cars full of ducks and chickens were roasted alive.

As soon as the destruction of the railroad yards was assured, the wind, as though prompted by malice, veered from west to northwest. Had it remained in the west, the flame would have exhausted itself in the lake. Chief Foley kept the fire confined to one block on East Water street until 7 o'clock, when it got away from him and leaped across the street and began a rapid march toward Lake Michigan, six blocks away.

The entire lower part of the Third ward, inhabited largely by poor Irish families, is devastated. About 300 dwellings have been destroyed and the poor people have been wandering about the streets loudly lamenting their losses.

Some plan for the relief of them will no doubt be made, but at this time people seem to be stunned and are doing nothing.

At 10 o'clock the gas works were burning and frequent explosions occurred which shook the whole city. The lights went out. The department used dynamite in an effort to stop the advance of the flames and several buildings were blown up.

During the course of the fire a number of barns and large livery stables were burned. These were filled with horses, which were liberated by the police. The horses ran wildly about the streets and before they could be caught a number of persons were run down and badly injured. The wires of the electric street railways are down and the telephone company's system is prostrated. The electric light service was paralyzed and the gas works were destroyed. Work in the newspaper and the telephone offices was done by candle light.

There will be much suffering among the homeless poor and outside aid will be necessary. The Germania society began last night the work of raising funds for the victims of the fire.

From reports now coming in it would seem that the number of lives lost will be considerable.

The losses will reach $10,000,000.

At 2:40 o'clock this morning the fire was under control.

Leading insurance men say that about half of the loss is covered by insurance. Some of the losses are as follows: Bubb & Kipp, furniture, $30,000;
J. Mott & Co., paints and oils, $250,000;
J. P. Kissinger, wholesale liquors, $55,-

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. DISASTERS AT SEA.

The Work of the Great Storms on the Atlantic.

THE WORST WRECK OFF PORTUGAL.

Over One Hundred Lives Lost—Disabled Vessel Off Ireland—A Schooner Sunk—French Steamer Lost—Seven Men Drowned.

LISBON, Oct. 29.—The British steamer Roumania, of the Anchor line, was wrecked at the mouth of the Arelho river, near Peniche. All the passengers and crew, numbering 113, are drowned, except nine.

Full particulars of the wreck have not been received, the reports being very meager. It appears, however, that the steamer was caught in the recent gale and after several days was driven onto the reefs and went to pieces. The Roumania had fifty-five passengers aboard, together with a crew number sixty-seven. The nine persons saved from the wreck have been given shelter in a hospital in the neighborhood.

The Roumania's captain and pilot are among the lost. Large quantities of wreckage are washing ashore all along the neighboring coast.

The Roumania was an iron screw steamship of 3,387 tons, belonging to the Anchor line and plying between Liverpool and Bombay. She sailed from Liverpool for Bombay on October 22. Her length was 364 feet, breadth 38 feet and depth 28½ feet and she was built at Glasgow in 1880. Peniche, near where the Roumania is reported to have been wrecked, is a fortified town of Portugal on the Atlantic ocean about fifty miles north of the mouth of the Tagus.

SUNK IN A COLLISION.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The steamer Umbria collided with the schooner Estramadura last night off Souter Point. The steamer returned to the Tyne. The crew of the schooner were subsequently taken off by a passing vessel and it is reported that the schooner sank, as she was leaking badly when she was abandoned.
